

BOOT CAMP: EQUIPPING MEN OF
INTEGRITY FOR SPIRITUAL WARFARE

CONCLUSION:

OUR BATTLE CRY

- “Virtute enim ipsa non tam multi praediti esse quam videri volunt.”
- “Few are those who wish to be endowed with virtue rather than to appear so.”

- Integrity leads us to live, in the sight of no one, the way we would live if the entire world were watching. It dictates our speech, regardless of who is within earshot. It functions as a filter between our eyes and our minds. It directs our work habits, irrespective of our bosses' attention.

- It holds us accountable in the ways we treat our wives, both inside and outside the walls of our houses. It serves as a compass for the pathways wherein we will lead our families.

- It discourages the use of hypocritical uniforms which are taken on and off, depending on the situation. Integrity is being, rather than simply appearing..

- “Therefore fear the LORD and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness. Put away the gods that your fathers served... and serve the LORD. And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve.” (Josh 24.14–15)

OUR BATTLE CRY

“esse quam videri”

TO BE, RATHER
